

LET THE SEAS BE YOUR GUIDE

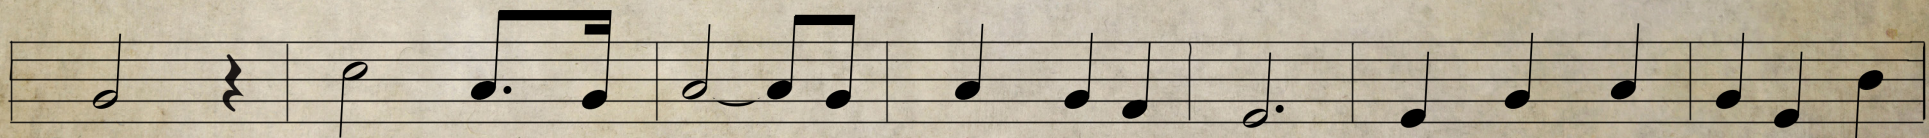

Let the wind play in your hair, feel the salt in the open air.

Oh sailor this life is beyond compare, With the sea's whisper your only care.

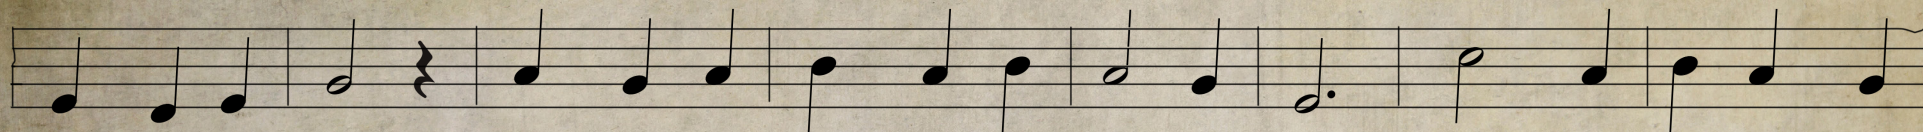

Song of the waves your heart's melody, Unfurl your sails, embrace the sea symphony

Astern you'll set the tempest for thee, You're the master of your own destiny. In the ocean's expanse, learn to find peace in the storm, leave fear behind. With every wave, and breeze in kind, counter the chaos, let your soul unwind. Seek the siren's every verse, with her alluring song, you'll immerse. And fear not the supposed curse,

Let the sea be your entire universe.
